

We Claim:

1. An accessible user interface and navigation system and method comprising:
 - accessing a manageable subset of core features needed by a user with a
 - 5 disability to access information;
 - choosing specific features that are matched to said user's disability; and
 - selecting an accessible user interface tailored to said user's disability to allow said user access to information.